A light lunch and cake will be served. We request only the pleasure of your company "no gifts please." We wish Jan the very best at her new home in Davenport. There will be a sending service to bless Jan in her move at worship on Sunday morning April 30.

Cleaning Up Othello

On March 11 a good turnout of Pilgrims braved the chill and a little bit of rain to walk 14th Ave and 1st Ave to pick up trash. This was a citywide clean up effort in preparation for the Sandhill Crane Festival. Afterwards we gathered at Larry and FayAnn McCourtie's home for a delicious brunch! Many thanks to all who participated, to Larry and FayAnn for offering their home, and to those who brought goodies. We have the Sun Tribune photos posted at church. See the back page for an after the event photo.

St. Patrick's Day Open House

Thank you, Pastor Don and Anna for hosting the second annual St. Patrick's Day open house at the parsonage. The food was fabulous and the company was grand. We all had a wonderful time-There WAS a lot of Green!

Compassion Sunday

On April 30 Pilgrim Lutheran will have a coffee hour following worship where Linda Bork and Fay Coats will describe their experiences of sponsoring a child through Compassion International. Founded in 1952, Compassion International is a Christian child development and child advocacy ministry dedicated to helping over 1.9 million children in need worldwide. Compassion's programs help release children from poverty in Jesus' name and enable them to become responsible, fulfilled adults. The children Compassion serves receive: a caring and safe Christian environment to grow in self-confidence and social skills; the opportunity to hear the Gospel and learn about Jesus; educational opportunities and mentoring; health care; hygiene training; supplementary food if necessary; personalized attention; guidance and love. Please plan to stay after worship and listen to this worthy cause.

Our Sympathy

We extend our deepest sympathy to Shirley McCullough in the loss of her daughter Tricia. Please continue to keep Shirley, Lisa and their families in your prayers as they grieve her passing.

Women's Bible Study

Our Bible Study will be held at Coventry House April 8 at 10 am. There will be someone there at the entrance to direct you to the meeting place! Extra copies of the study can be found on the desk in the Narthex! Hope to see you there!

Sunday School Bees & Trees

PLC Sunday School held a bake sale after worship on March 26 with the purpose of supporting the ELCA Good Gifts Bees and Trees campaign. Thanks to YOU, $402.52 was collected for this program. The children are continuing to collect donations during Lent, and after Easter the full contribution will be sent to the synod for distribution. Thank you for your generosity!

A Special Opportunity for Women

Saturday May 6, at 11 am, Meghan Olsen will lead Pilgrim Lutheran women and guests in an hour of multi-level and multi-age yoga exercises. Exercises will focus on stretching, balance, flexibility, and breathing, with accommodations made for all levels of fitness. We will choose a Bible verse to focus on during this hour, and follow the exercises with a salad luncheon. This is an outreach activity that your Evangelism Committee hopes all PLC women will support by inviting friends, co-workers, and others to participate. Stay tuned for additional information as the event gets closer.

From your Pastor:

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On Palm Sunday we will read together again the story of the Passion of Christ. We will hear again how Jesus came into Jerusalem with loud shouts of "Hosanna to the Son of David" on Sunday, only to be betrayed by Thursday and crucified on Friday. Wow! How quickly things can change!

This year we will read from the Gospel According to Matthew, which is the only one of the four gospels that mentions that there were Temple guards stationed at the tomb to prevent grave robbing, and the only gospel that mentions there was an earthquake at the time of the resurrection. The other gospel writers didn't seem to think those details were important enough to include in their writings, so that makes me wonder what, among those details, caught Matthew's imagination? Why did he, and he alone, decide to include the meeting between the chief priests and Pilate where the priests confided in the governor that they were afraid the disciples were going to raid the tomb? Why did Matthew decide to include the part about the earthquake? And only Matthew says the angel sat on the stone. In the other gospels the angel either sits inside the tomb or stands beside the women who had brought burial spices. What is Matthew emphasizing by including these details?

It may seem like minor, trivial details to some people, but I think Matthew is up to something. I think Matthew is emphasizing God's power over the powers of this world. I think Matthew is letting us know that, while we may have the power the threat of death, with guards and weapons and fear, God has the ultimate power of life over death! The resurrection is God's exclamation point in the defeat of sin and death. The resurrection is where God displays to us and for us that God is not interested in death. The resurrection shows that God does not want to be separated from us by sin. God is ultimately and finally most interested in creating an unending bond of love and offering us eternal life. No power on earth can stand up against that.

We may try to contain God in tombs. We may try to guard against God's actions. We may try to defeat God's power with weapons, but none of that works. God's love, I am convinced, is the most powerful force in the universe! We cannot run from God's love because God knows where we are. Read Psalm 139 and you will know what I mean. We cannot get God to stop loving us no matter what we do because God forgives us. Psalm 103 says, "He forgives all your iniquity and heals all your diseases." (Ps. 103:3) Finally, even death is no barrier for God. The resurrection proves that. It was enough evidence for Paul to write, "I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor things in the present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord." (Romans 8:38-39) We worship God, the most powerful force in the universe, and we participate with God by being disciples of the most powerful King in the universe, and that gives us something to celebrate! Happy Easter! See you in church.

Pastor Don

From your Church Council:

Philippians 4:13 "I can do all things through him who strengthens me."

Greetings Fellow Pilgrims!

Our Quilters have worked hard this year, and we look forward to adorning the pews with their handiwork. Blessing of the quilts will be April 30 at our worship service, and they will be packed up on Tuesday, May 2nd at 9 am. Your help in assembling, packing, and weighing the boxes of quilts is much appreciated by all the quilters and those who receive them!

Cleaning up our grounds!

Please watch the bulletins for information regarding work parties during the month of April and May! If all of us pitch in a little, we will have our church looking tip top in no time at all. Thank you!
